DISTRICT TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL A PROBABILITY

During the week, Dr. Carpenter, principal of the provincial school of technology and art at Calgary, and Mr. Gorman, chief inspector of schools, from Edmonton, were in the Pass in the interest of the proposed district high school, and after visiting the various districts involved, namely Coleman, Bellevue, Frank, Hillcrest and Blaimore, advanced their proposition to a mass meeting of the various boards, held in the Blaimore central school building last night.

Having looked the grounds over quite thoroughly, both Dr. Carpenter and Mr. Gorman felt that the time was opportune and that the size and importance of the district demanded such an institution as would ensure education preparatory to entering upon university work.

Figures showed that the various schools offered pupils in the following proportion:

	IX.	X.	XI.	XII.	Tl.
Bellevue	24	21	11	1	57
Hillcrest	9	7	7	0	23
Frank	5	0	0	0	5
Blaimore	23	17	17	0	57
Coleman	31	20	18	4	73
Totals	92	65	53	5	215

The enrolment of the schools is as follows: Bellevue 394; Hillcrest 312; Frank 60, Blaimore 444, Coleman 584—Total 1794.

The meeting last night was presided over by W. H. Chappell, chairman of the local board. There were present board members from each district, together with Principals Hoyle, Macpherson and Drake, of Coleman, Blaimore and Frank, respectively.

The details necessary to be considered were very fully outlined by Mr. Gorman and Dr. Carpenter, and following a number of questions, which were satisfactorily answered, the matter of further action was left with a committee composed of Messrs. Snowden, Coleman; Chappell, Blaimore; Donkin, Frank; Haggerty, Hillcrest, and Strett, Bellevue, who are to report later.

The question of site may offer a problem. When the matter of transportation is considered and use to be made of the railway, Coleman is most likely to be the choice, while if motor transportation is favored, Blaimore would be the desirable location.

It is sincerely hoped that the movement now on foot will result in the establishment in this section of the province such an institution as will meet the needs of the district. The question of cost of construction of a building and the maintenance thereafter, spread over the taxable property of the district, would be but a nominal matter, as compared with the results promised. As a matter of fact, the burden would be little less than ratepayers of this section are at present called upon to bear.

There are further details yet to be gone into and Dr. Carpenter and Mr. Gorman will be with us again in the course of a few days.

In the formation of the consolidated school district, there will be a board of possibly seven members, two representing Coleman, two Blaimore, one Hillcrest, one Bellevue and one Frank. The cost of upkeep will be equally divided pro rata with the population served.

Before the matter can be definitely decided upon, a vote has to be taken in each of the towns and districts affected.

The annual meeting of the Blaimore Board of Trade will be held at the Greenhill hotel on Monday night next at 8 o'clock.

BELLEVUE B'ND CONCERT DRAWS RECORD AUDIENCE

The sacred concert given by the Bellevue West Canadian Band at the Orpheum theatre on Sunday night last once more demonstrated the popularity of that organization as well as the local public's interest in good music.

The chair was occupied by Mr. W. H. Chappell, and long before the opening time of 8.30, the spacious theatre was packed to overflowing.

The programme consisted of a number of selections by the band under the very able leadership of Mr. G. W. Goodwin, interspersed by vocal solos by Mr. Arthur Hadwell and others and instrumental solos and duets. Each item elicited hearty applause from the audience.

Towards the close of the program, a collection was taken to help defray expenses and add to the much needed funds of the band. The collection amounted to around $50.00.

On behalf of the band, Mr. Chappell thanked the various vocal artists who assisted and the public of Blaimore for their manifested interest and support. Particularly would they thank Mr. R. Knald, who for the concert granted the use of the theatre free of charge.

The band will repeat their program at the Coleman opera house on Sunday night next.

STAR IN "LUCKY IN LOVE" IS POPULAR SINGER

Admittedly one of the most popular night club entertainers in New York, Morton Downey, Broadway's golden-voiced tenor who created a sensation in the melody picture "Syncopation" and in Pathe's all-dialogue and singing picture, "Mother's Boy," will be seen and heard in another Pathe talking production, "Lucky in Love," at Cole's theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Mr. Downey has the role of an Irish stable boy in this delightful screen creation. He loves dainty Lady Mary Carlgan, played by Betty Lawford, and how he wins her makes highly enjoyable entertainment. Halliwell Hobbes, a well known English Shakespearean actor, is seen as the Earl of Balkerry, and Colin Keith-Johnson, a British player of fine ability, is cast in the villain's role. Other stage players in the cast include J. M. Kerrigan, Mackenzie Ward, Elizabeth Murray, Sonia Karlov and others.

The scenes of the picture are laid in Ireland and New York, and the story concerns the love romance of a girl of the nobility and a stable boy with a golden voice.

TOM JURKOVICH SUICIDES AT CALGARY

The dead body of Tom Jurkovich was found in an outhouse on Third Avenue, near Second Street, east Calgary, on Saturday, March 15th, having apparently been dead for several hours. A .303 army rifle was found near the body.

No inquest was held, the coroner not deeming it necessary.

Deceased had resided in Drumheller for several years and leaves to mourn his loss a sorrowing wife and young daughter residing at Frank.

The remains were laid to rest at Calgary on Tuesday of last week.

W. B. Smith Craig, aged 53, a former Alberta lawyer, died at Windsor, Ontario. He moved from Alberta to Ontario in 1921.

Language difficulties result in some humorous situations. An interpreter at the General Motors plant at Batawa, Java, was asked to translate for the Chevrolet slogan, "A Fine Car in Low Price Field," into Javanese. He proudly produced a passage which, literally translated, read, "A Small Cheap Car in an Open Lot."

When Food Sours

About two hours after eating many people suffer from "sour stomachs." They call it indigestion. It means that the stomach nerves have been over-stimulated. There is excess acid. The way to correct it is with an alkali, which neutralizes many times its volume in acid.

The right way is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia—just a tasteless dose in water. It is pleasant, efficient and harmless. It has remained the standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention. It is the quick method. Results come almost instantly. It is the approved method. You will never use another when you know.

along and have a real good time. And don't you be too snappy to Jim Bennett, either. He's a good guy, and not entirely responsible for his own actions."

"Oh, I'll be good to him!" promised Grandma, laughing; and Grandma leaned forward in her chair to watch the two young people start off in the direction of the old white church that faced the village green.

"Provincial!" she snorted angrily. It was plain to see that Sarah Bennett's comment was not to be treated lightly. "I don't believe it. I guess I know a country bumpkin when I see one, even if I haven't been out of Wickfield for five years. Charman's a sight more stylish, and stands up straighter than those fashion plates in the mail order catalogues from Chicago, and she never did a rule thing in her life. She's Luther Davis all over when it comes to manners. Why, she even thanks Tommy Gannery when he takes away the garbage, though goodness knows it's not a favor. He and that Eldridge boy had an awful fight one Saturday to see which would get it."

Grandma was so stirred up that an automobile passed without her seeing it as she went on indignantly: "And talk of me! Why, Charman could trim one herself that would make that green mail-order hat that Sarah Bennett's making such a fuss about, look like the tail feathers to a rooster! There goes Sarah now. She's got on her brown tights, and if she helps in the kitchen like she usually does, it's liable to get spotted. I declare, I almost hope she spoils it!"

Suddenly Grandma laughed at herself, and relaxed a little. "I'm afraid I'm getting real spiteful in my old age," she murmured. "I ought to be ashamed; but for Sarah Bennett to put on airs to a Davis, is a drop more'n I can swallow. There goes Emmy Bascomb and the twins. I wish Emmy'd stop and let me see her new shirtwaist! But I suppose she's in a hurry. She's waving, and so are the children. They look lovely in their new dresses, one pink—one blue, same as usual."

"Dear me! I don't see how anybody stands living on a side street where there's not much passing. I wish I had Charman put my supper on a tray in here. I don't want to miss anything while I'm eating. If only somebody'd stop in on an errand I'd get 'em to fix it for me. There goes Gam Garfield, but he's reading his paper and won't look up. Here comes an auto. I do believe it's Jimmy Bennett, and—"

Grandma rapped sharply on the window, and Jim, who was looking at the house almost against his will, saw her summons and stopped his car. She beckoned, and he came in asking: "You want something, Grandma? I saw you wave."

"And it's lucky for me you did," smiled the old lady. "I want you should bring my supper in from the kitchen. Charman left it all set out on the table, but I don't want to miss the passing just as every one's going to the church. You take that big tin tray in here. I don't want to miss anything on it. The tea's in the teapot, and all you've got to do is to pour in some hot water from the kettle. I don't mind eating a little early, and maybe no one else would be coming by that I could ask."

"You want it on the card table, Grandma?" asked Jim affably. "I'll move it over before I get the feast."

"That's right, sonny. It's plain to see you're handy about the house. There goes Lizzie Baker, hurrying as usual. For a wonder she hasn't got on her apron, but she's carrying it in her hand. It's real fun eating here by the window. Jimmy, sort of like having a front seat at the party."

Jim steadied the little table, and peered for a moment into the quiet street.

"Can't say that I see any—well, similarity," he remarked. "I guess Charman gets some of her ideas from you, Grandma. She's forever seeing things that I can't see at all."

Is that table in the right place? Now I'll go after the grub."

"Be sure you don't forget the tea," called the old lady as he moved away. Jim turned, his face suddenly gloomy.

"Forgetting's not one of my habits, Grandma Davis," he said soberly. "There are times when I wish to thunder it was."

He was gone before Grandma could reply, but she closed her eyes a moment in an effort to get his meaning. When she opened them the Merry's Spitz dog, Gypsy, was trotting along the sidewalk opposite carrying a huge ham bone, and in watching him hunt a place to bury it, Grandma forgot her helper till he appeared, bearing a well-loaded tray.

"He's buried it under Lizzie Baker's lilac bush!" she exclaimed excitedly. "I declare, he's smart as a human being. Probably he's saving it for a rainy day. He's gone off toward the church again, thinking to get some more scraps most likely."

"Scraps?" echoed Jim, puzzled, as he laid down his burden. "Who are you talking about? What's been buried under Miss Lizzie's lilac? You sound like an adventure story, Grandma—plates, you know, burying pieces of eight."

Grandma chuckled. "It was a treasure all right, to him. Jimmy, I'm talking about the Merry's Gypsy. There's not a coter dog in town, and if you ask me, I'll say he knows a sight more than some of the Wickfield voters do. What's all this stuff for, sonny? I don't need two forks or—"

"Maybe not," replied Jim, a twinkle appearing in his brown eyes, "but I'm a conscientious objector on the subject of eating with my fingers—that is, when I can be avoided. There's plenty here for two, and—"

"You going to stay?" broke in Grandma, beaming.

"I thought if I hinted plain enough that perhaps you'd do the rest," grinned Jim; and with a flourish he set a small, round shortcake in the centre of the table.

CHAPTER VII.

"Well," exclaimed Grandma, as her self-invented guest drew up a chair and proceeded to pour the tea, "that is real cozy! It's most often that I have company when Charman's away. She'll be surprised enough when I tell her I had the handsomest young man in town to supper with me. Give me a drop more cream, Jimmy. This tea's got but I can't drink it. Maybe you'd have had a better supper at the church; but you can console yourself remembering that it's a kind deed to keep old women company."

"I didn't hint for that invitation in order to do any kind deed," replied Jim amiably, "but because I wanted to stay. You don't seem old to me, Grandma. Some ways you seem younger than Charman."

To his surprise Grandma's face sobered. "Sometimes I think I feel younger," she admitted. "Charman's got too much responsibility on her shoulders—she's had, ever since she was born. One thing, she works too hard; and there are times when she gets discouraged though she doesn't say so. The Davises never were folks to whine about things. They take life as it comes and make the best of it. I've sometimes thought that if Charman only had the chance she'd be a poet, like her grandfather. When she was a little girl she wrote some real pretty verses about the first violet. But she's never had time to give to it as her grandpa had."

As he looked up at an ugly crack in the ceiling, it struck this practical young man that if Grandma Davis had given more time to the farm and less to poetry, his granddaughters wouldn't have to worry about finances. Not wishing to voice this thought he took a mouthful of bread and butter, that made speech impossible; while Grandma, turning toward the window, said:

"There goes that summer folk from over South Wickfield way! Do you suppose they're going to the

She wouldn't take the change; and she bought all Charman's fudge and your mother's ginger cookies. It's a wonder her folks weren't sick with all that sweet stuff in the house at once. What's In An Initial

Employment Bureau Official At Montreal Has Queer Experience

What is the psychological difference between the people whose resumes begin with an initial in the first half of the alphabet and those whose initials come in the second half? This is a question which F. R. Clarke, manager of the Protestant employment bureau at Montreal, is asking himself at present, for as far as the bureau is concerned, there is a very distinct difference.

Last year, in order to prepare for a bad winter, the bureau split the applicants for jobs into two groups. The A's to L's were told to call on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays, the M's to Z's on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, the days being divided in this way after it had been proved that each set of days would bring in approximately the same number of requests for men.

It was found, however, that although at the outset there were an equal number of men in the two groups, the M's to Z's group dwindled far more rapidly than the A's to L's group. If work was not found for them, they went out and hunted it for themselves, while the A's to L's sat and waited for something to turn up.

After three weeks' notice, the bureau changed the sequence of the two groups and the A's to L's were told to come on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, and M's to Z's on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays. In spite of this change, which might have provided a possible explanation of the situation, the M's to Z's group continued to grow smaller and smaller, because the men were finding steady jobs, while the A's to L's group remains more or less stationary.

Still On the Increase

Figures Show Motor Traffic Taking

And still the casualties due to automobile traffic go up! Figures compiled by the Travelers Insurance Company from thirty-seven States show that approximately 31,000 people were killed by automobiles last year, an increase of more than eleven per cent. over the figures for 1928.

"On the basis of last year's total number of motor vehicle deaths," says a bulletin issued by the company, "at least two persons out of each 10,000 of the country's population were killed in such mishaps. Two hundred persons out of each 10,000, or a ratio of 1 out of each 50 persons, were injured, 60 of the 200 being hurt seriously."

Proves Ability To Drive Car

But Paris Authorities Reluctant To Grant License To Armless Man

The authorities of Paris have before them an unusual request—that a man both of whose forearms have been amputated as a result of wounds received in the war may be granted his license to drive a motor car.

M. Laitus, a school teacher in the centre of France, has brought his skill in using his artificial forearms to such a pitch that, having made certain adaptations to his car, he is perfectly able to drive it. Recently he presented himself for his test before the Paris authorities, and the examiner had to admit that he was a perfectly capable driver.

Nevertheless, he refused to grant a driving license without reference to higher officials. Friends having taken up his case, M. Laitus had proved his capacity, not only of driving along the country roads, but in the crowded streets of the French capital. Having shown that he could do in this way, he then took off his coat, jacked his car up, and changed the wheel as easily as any able-bodied man.

The police apparently regarded his case sympathetically, but, nevertheless demanded further tests.

Present-Day Insecurity

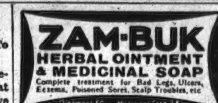

The Merchant, the Farmer and the Laborer All Affected By Present Conditions

The most marked feature of present civilization is insecurity. This affects the small merchant and the farmer as well as the day laborer. Fear of loss of employment, of economic damage, of old age, for oneself and one's family, is so general that men live in a state of precarious anxiety. The orgy of the recent stock market is a natural product of a blind hope of finding some way of escape from a hounded-in life. Where all is uncertain, why not take a chance of turning uncertainty to account? If I dwell upon the element of insecurity in modern life, it is because, in spite of all that is written about unemployment, its emotional and mental effect does not seem to me to have begun to receive the attention it deserves. It is hopeless to look for mental stability and integration when the economic bases of life are unsettled.—John Dewey.

To Asthma Sufferers, Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy comes like a helping hand to a sinking swimmer. It gives new life and hope—something he has come to believe impossible. Its benefit is too evident to be questioned—it is its own best argument—its own best advertisement. If you suffer from asthma get this timely remedy and find help like thousands of others.

A SIMPLE TREATMENT FOR CHILDREN'S COLDS

Cold in the head is very common at this time of the year, especially in the very young. Neglect of a cold is prone to lead to serious consequences. To relieve all congestion of the system is the first step in treating a cold, whether in infants or adults. For the very young, Baby's Own Tablets are the ideal means of doing this. Containing no narcotics or other harmful drugs they soothe the child's fretfulness, relieve its suffering and ensure convalescence.

Baby's Own Tablets are without an equal for relieving indigestion, constipation and colic. They check diarrhoea; break up colds and simple fevers; promote health-giving sleep and make the dreaded teething period easy. The Tablets are the one medicine that a mother can give her little ones with perfect safety as they are guaranteed to be free from injurious drugs. They are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Needless Pain!

Some folks take pain for granted. They let a cold "run its course." They wait for their headaches to "wear off." If suffering from neuralgia or from neuritis, they rely on feeling better in the morning.

"There's nothing to be scared of," declared Grandma, "unless it's Sarah Bennett. Like as not she'll discover something wrong about you. She says the Wickfield girls are all 'provincial.' Jim told me so himself. I looked in the dictionary and it said that provincial means constricted and rude. Well if Charman looks constricted I wish you'd tell me so; but she's not rude. Her manners come from the Davises, and they all had a way with 'em even when they were poorer than Job's turkey. Some day I'll tell Sarah Bennett what I think of her."

"I'll do it for you if ever I have the chance," replied the doctor with heart-warming sympathy. "And you needn't worry about your granddaughter. I assure you there's nothing provincial in her make-up."

"Well, you ought to know," responded Grandma, "coming from a big place like Boston. I guess my girl's all right even—"

Charman had been an amused spectator of this scene, but now she interrupted with a laugh.

"Come, Grandma, you've talked me over thoroughly enough; and we must start along if I'm to be any use to Mrs. Merry. Your supper's all laid out on the kitchen table; and don't you dare to wash a single dish. Just leave them in the sink. I shan't be late; and if you need anything you can call up Doctor Howe, and he'll let me know."

AMENDMENTS TO MR.

BAKER'S SCHOOL BILL

The new School Act as amended does away with the provincial board, and divisional boards are to be established only when approved by the people in divisions having 150 or so schools. Additional grants are to be made to ensure that the payment of teachers' salaries in a division will not require a levy of more than eight mills. This is the average deemed necessary for the purpose in the rural schools throughout the province. With the establishment of larger units under the revised plan, the minister looks for a marked improvement in the system. Full time operation, the solving of the problem of secondary education, a more equitable distribution of costs, more satisfactory conditions for the teachers and better supervision are among the results that he anticipates.

WESTERN RELIC

An old brick making machine that was once used at Pincher Creek, Alberta, is now forming part of the collection in the Henry Ford museum. More than that, this machine was the property of the Miner family. When Jack Miner was visiting his sister in Pincher Creek he re-located the old brick-making machine which had been brought west when members of his family came out here. He had his relatives ship it back to Ontario and he has sent it over to the Ford museum at Fort Dearborn.

A pamphlet issued by the Dominion government poultry branch, states that "eggs are troublesome." Bad eggs, of the human variety, in the Crows' Nest Pass, have always been troublesome.

Bellevue and Blairmore arenas were closed for the season the early part of last week.

THE K.K.K. ATTACKED

For the second Sunday evening in succession, the theatre at Red Deer was packed to the doors to hear Mr. William I. Clarke, of Blackfalds, deliver a vigorous and slashing attack in the Ku Klux Klan and its doings at Drumheller. "While there were good men in the Klan, he admitted, his contention was that the bulk of their membership was made up of what he called "rift raft." According to his statement, a close friend of his was driven to suicide by the threats and unholy machinations of the Klan, and he cited cases of homes broken up, the course of justice corrupted, religious strife stirred up, race riots incited, jealousy and distrust engendered between neighbors, intimidation and other anti-social and reactionary efforts of the Klan, including numerous murders, all vowed for from his own personal experiences.

In his recent address at Red Deer, Mr. W. I. Clarke, although a fluent and forceful speaker, with a wealth of apt expressions, utterly failed to find language strong enough to adequately express his opinion of the Ku Klux Klan, which he called un-American, anti-British, opposed to anything in the nature of fair play or open-handed dealing. He undertook to substantiate every thing he said about the Klan, and accused them of being bluffers from the drop of the hat, and advised his audience to follow his example in calling their bluff every time.

DECISION RESERVED
ON SUN LIFE CASE

MONTREAL.—Judgment has been reserved by the Supreme Court of Canada in connection with the appeal of the Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada against the findings of J. D. Finlayson, superintendent of insurance. The appeal is another step in the efforts of the company to be allowed to increase its capital stock from two to four millions.

The first bill to pass the federal parliament in connection with the company was in 1865 and gave it an authorized capital of $2,000,000, with power to increase it to $4,000,000. In 1870 a bill was passed cutting the initial capital down to $1,000,000, but still with authority to increase it ultimately to $4,000,000. It provided that the company's activities be divided into two departments, one life and accident insurance, the other fire, marine and other forms of insurance. Each department was to be allotted half of the capital. The following year the act was again amended, limiting the company to life and accident and including a general clause repealing all clauses of the previous act which clashed with this new one.

The superintendent of insurance held that the maximum capitalization for life insurance purposes had been fixed by the act of 1870 at $2,000,000 and that the act of 1871 did not alter that. He held, therefore, that the company would have to get further authority from parliament before it could increase its capitalization above $2,000,000.

When the superintendent's ruling was made known, the company applied to parliament for a new act to increase the capital. The bill failed to get through the House two years ago. Last year it again came up and passed, the provision for the increase in capitalization being eliminated. It was understood that the company could carry an appeal to the court to find out whether the ruling of the superintendent of insurance was valid. The company had contended all along that the acts of 1870 and 1871 had not combined to cut its maximum capitalization from four to two millions.

In the exchequer court, the finding of the superintendent of insurance was upheld and then it was appealed to the Supreme Court of Canada. At the opening of the hearing the question of jurisdiction was raised by Hon. Lucien Cannon, solicitor-general.

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT

HELD AT BELLEVUE

The young people of St. Cyril's parish, Bellevue, assisted by friends from Hillcrest, produced a very popular entertainment in Cole's theatre at Bellevue on Thursday evening last. The large audience was delighted with the variety of the snappy productions.

The programme was as follows:

"So This is School," a one-act play by the following people: Teacher—Angelina Hovan; Pupils—Mary Hillary, Stella and Mary Miranovitch, Esther McInnis, Wanda Ratko, Helen Smith, Winnifred McIntyre, Susie Doyle, Sophie Hyndes, Evelyn Pelle, Jimmy Cardie, Helen Kneizche, Anna Sefcik. They also sang the choruses: "Come Back to Erin," "Dear Little Shamrock" and "Killarney."

Next was another 1-act play, "The Wrong Baby," in which the following appeared: Mrs. R. Blake, Marjorie McInnis, Anna Perosak, Anna Kubasek, Amelia Edematso, Angelina Hovan, Mary McIntyre and Helen Boyle.

Several choruses, songs and dances were given by the following talented young ladies from Hillcrest: Misses Jones, Lipnick, Belopotosky and Agnes Truba.

A military comedy, which produced a riot of fun, was produced by the following boys: Joe Morris, Dan McLafferty, Joe McIntyre, Henry Kuryluk, Tony Constanta, Bruno Tambourini, Gerard McIntyre, Alex. Melmas. This was a clever piece and very amusing.

Then follow two Irish plays, which were drolle merry-makers: "For the Love of Kitty" and "Timothy Casey's Secret." The following took part in these: Misses Lipnick, Belopotosky, Agnes and Maggie Truba, Vincente Casagrande. The men in these plays were: John McDade, Joe Norton, Steve Lesson, Jack Houghton and Frank Norton.

Music was provided by a trio, Miss Morris, Marc Piard and Denis McLafferty, as well as by the "Whoopie Kings" orchestra. Piano accompaniments were rendered by Mrs. Percy Salt. Altogether, the concert was one of the most successful produced by local talent.

It was suggested that it should have been brought before the court by means of request for an injunction from one of the shareholders. Mr. Lafleur replied that none of the shareholders were objecting. Judgment was also reserved on this point. —Financial Post.

Sometimes in a Mother's Life

A great question arises. What shall she feed her children? She knows they must have milk—but in what form? The answer, as found by thousands of happy mothers, is Nestlé's Evaporated Milk.

And here's the Reason! Nestlé's Evaporated Milk is just the best of fresh cow's milk with part of the water removed—then sealed and sterilized in air-tight containers. Add water again and you have absolutely pure, safe milk—but more readily digestible than ordinary milk because the large fat globules of the milk have been broken up into small ones of the same size as in Mother's milk. Also the curds which form in the stomach when Nestlé's Evaporated Milk is used are soft and flaky and therefore easily digestible.

Use Nestlé's Evaporated Milk for Your Baby. Use it in coffee—in cocoa—in tea. Use it in all cooking and as a beverage by diluting with one to two parts water.

GAMBLERS HAVE BEEN HARD HIT
The daily press is filled with the so-called business depression as a result of the low price of wheat.

But when you read these dolorous complaints, remember that it is the wheat gambler and speculator who has been hard hit and not the grower of wheat. The grower of wheat is accustomed to "ups and downs" in his stocks. He has sold wheat far below present prices and still lived, paid his bills and carried on. He suffered hardships, to be sure, but he survived, and the country prospered because of his grit and staying qualities.

But the wheat gambler, the man who mortgages his home, his furnishings, his wife's diamonds, his library, his dress suit to get money with which to gamble in wheat or stocks, he is the gentleman who now feels the pinch and who is causing all the so-called "business depression" talk. Many of his ilk have been stripped naked and will actually have to go to work soon to earn a living.

Remember that it is the irresponsible gambler and not the farmer who howls—Bert Huffman in The Market Examiner, Calgary.

The Coleman Board of Trade will take steps to improve the emergency landing field, west of that town, in view of the possibility of the Crow's Nest Pass being decided upon as the main air route. With the four towns of Bellevue, Coleman, Blairmore and Hillcrest situated close together, Coleman Board of Trade are viewing the possibilities of having this point marked for the despatch of air mail from this group of towns, being the centre of the bituminous coal industry in Alberta. The population to be served is around 10,000.

A new theory on the possible cause of the death of four patients in a Toronto hospital was given by Sir George Filmer, Bart., B.Sc. He advanced the theory that radio waves, causing a high frequency, electrolysis and breaks down substances in the human body, thereby forming a toxic condition, resulting in death.

A certain settlement in Newfoundland boasts of the widest and smoothest motor highway in the world, that hasn't cost the government a cent to build and not a cent for repairs since its construction. It is in perfect shape in the winter time, when all other highways in the world are more or less difficult to navigate. This highway has been built by Jack Frost free of cost—simply as an experiment—and is wide enough in places to permit one thousand cars to travel side by side.

COWEY HAPPENINGS

We regret to say that David Bouthiller is now on the sick list.

The local U.F.A. are making arrangements to build a co-operative store on the corner lot opposite the old Cowley Hotel. Building material is a new on the site.

A court whist drive was staged in the Masonic hall on Monday night, under auspices of the Cowley Women's Institute. There were nine tables at play. Prizes were won by the following: ladies' first, Mrs. Harold Cleland; gents' first, Mr. John Musgrave; while the boobies went to Mrs. J. K. Heatherington and Mr. Ed. Labrie.

Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. Davis were both killed in a motor accident near their home in California, only a few days ago. Mrs. Davis, who was Miss Daisy Emerson before her marriage, will be remembered by many friends and old schoolmates here, as she was a Cowley resident for many years with her mother and brothers and sister during her childhood years. She had three living children, one of whom was with them at the time of the tragedy, but escaped death.

On Friday night, the local Masons staged a very successful party in the Masonic hall. The early part of the evening was devoted to playing whist, after which a dainty and delicious luncheon was enjoyed. When the hall was cleared, dancing was indulged in for the rest of the evening. The whist prizes were won as follows: ladies' first, Mrs. Penn; gents' first, Mr. Jack Welsh; while the consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. Robert Littleton and Mr. Arthur Densmore. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Penn, Mr. and Mrs. Densmore, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Connelly, Mr. and Mrs. Mundie, Miss Pearl Madden, Mr. Wilfred Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Swart, Mr. and Mrs. M. Baines, Miss Doris McEwen, Mrs. George Porter, Miss Lambert, Mr. Jim Mundie and others. Music was furnished by Miss Martha Tustian, Mr. Ed. Baines and Mr. Alvin Murphy.

The rank of Esquire will be conferred at the regular meeting of Livingstone Lodge, K. of P., tomorrow night. A full attendance of members is requested.

Rev. Dr. G. W. Kerby, of Calgary, will be the special preacher at the twenty-fourth anniversary services at St. Paul's United church, Coleman, on Sunday, April 6th. Bevan, B.D.

SASKATCHEWAN RESOURCES PACT NOW COMPLETED

Ottawa.—The agreement for the return of the natural resources to Saskatchewan has been signed, in Ottawa, Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, and Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior, affixed their signatures to a copy of the agreement, while in Regina Premier J. T. M. Anderson, and Hon. M. A. Macpherson, attorney-general were to have signed.

The copies were then mailed from Ottawa to Regina and from Regina to Ottawa. The completing signatures will be affixed when they arrive at their destinations and the agreement will then be made public.

With the signing of the agreement with Saskatchewan, announced at Premier King's office, the return of natural resources to the western provinces is complete. Agreements have already been completed with Manitoba, Alberta and British Columbia.

While the details of the transfer are not to be made public until the documents have reached Regina and Ottawa respectively, Premier Macpherson has already announced that the same principles were followed as in the case of Alberta.

It is understood a commission will be appointed to deal with certain questions, while the date to be chosen for the basis of payment will be decided by the Supreme Court of Canada.

The province has contended there is legal foundation for a claim extending back to 1870, against the proposal that claims should only begin at 1905, when Saskatchewan entered into confederation.

Germany Raises Wheat Duty

And Government Has Power To Raise It Further

Berlin.—Food Minister Dietrich has completed negotiations with the government of the United States regarding the duties on agricultural products and passage of the new schedules is regarded as assured. The duty on wheat is to be raised to a possible maximum of 25 cents (about $28.50 a ton instead of 95 marks).

The government will be authorized to raise it still further in case a drought crisis should develop if huge quantities of wheat now stored in Canada and the United States should be thrown upon the open market.

Under the measure the duty on barley would be raised to a hundred marks a ton.

Murdoch Is New Senator

Premier King Announces Appointment Of Former Minister Of Labor

Ottawa.—Hon. James Murdoch, former Minister of Labor in the King administration, has been appointed to the Senate. Announcement of the appointment was made by Premier W. L. Mackenzie King in the House of Commons.

"Other appointments to existing vacancies will be made in due course," the Premier said. The announcement was made by the Premier by way of reply to a question propounded by R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, a few days ago as to when the vacancies to the Upper Chamber would be filled.

Canada's Power System

Ottawa, Ont.—In 1925 Canada had 38 hydro-electric power systems distributed from coast to coast. These systems have an average annual output of 100,000,000 kilowatt hours or more. The Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario had an output exceeding four billion kilowatt hours each. These 18 systems account for 92 per cent of the total units generated in all central power systems of Canada.

League Society Holds Its Annual Meeting

Membership Of Canadian Branch Has Been Increased

Ottawa.—Representatives of organizations interested in promoting international peace from all parts of Canada, attended the eighth annual meeting of the League of Nations Society in Canada here. The annual report of the executive showed progress had been made during the past year in extending the activities of the society and increasing the membership. Dr. H. M. Tory, president of the society, was in the chair and an address on the league was given by Miss Agnes MacPhail. Sir George E. Foster led a discussion of the annual report. He stressed the importance of popular education on the ideals of the league. This was perhaps more difficult in Canada, with its scattered population than in other countries. But it indicated the need of a vigorous organization and a continuation of the work of the society.

SOLUTION MAY BE FOUND FOR NAVAL DEADLOCK

London, England.—That a way has been found to break the Franco-Italian deadlock over naval parity, a deadlock which threatened the very life of the five-power naval conference, was indicated after a surprise meeting between Ramsay MacDonald, prime minister of Great Britain, and Aristide Briand, foreign minister of France.

The French leader, at French headquarters in the Hotel Carlton, their conversation lasted two and a half hours, and after it M. Briand said:

"We have been talking about means to bring the conference to a successful conclusion and we are going to apply those means as quickly as possible."

That the conference proved unexpectedly important was shown by the fact that Miss MacDonald had obviously been expecting a quick termination of the conference, as she waited for her father in the lobby during the entire two hours and a half.

M. Briand was greeted by a handful of newspapermen and a quick termination of the conference. He was as non-committal as usual about details, but was quite definite in saying that the situation had taken a new turn and that optimistic events were in the air.

"Always, when things seem at their worst, one finds a way out," he said. "That is true now."

Mr. MacDonald came from M. Briand's room with a smiling face and greeted his daughter in an unusually cheerful manner, but he declined to answer any questions.

The French leader in evading discussion of details, said: "I am in the habit of chattering too much and then I am reproached for it afterwards. We have been taking our hearings and experts have been making the observations precise." This remark seemed to bring out the fact that Reno Masagil, French naval technician, and R. L. Craigie of the British technical staff were present during part of the conference.

M. Briand further conveyed the idea that his talk with Mr. MacDonald was concerned largely with practical figures instead of political aspects of the problem. Furthermore he said that besides conferring with M. Tardieu, in Paris, he is to see the foreign affairs committee of the French senate.

Berlin Churches Attacked

Berlin.—Communists were charged recently with attacks on church edifices in Berlin during the night. A Protestant church in north Berlin had a large illuminated Bible fast over the door smashed. A Roman Catholic church was daubed with red paint inscriptions deriding religion. It was said in despatches from Moscow that the anti-religious campaign would be extended to North America.

Seize British Steamer

Norfolk, Va.—The British oil screw steamer "Dorothy and Audrey" was taken to Charleston, S.C., in convoy with a coast guard patrol boat, the crew of which had boarded the vessel and discovered 800 cases of liquor in the hold, a report from Charleston indicated.

Australia Plans Tobacco Culture Canberra, Aus.—A soil and plant survey is to be made by the Australian government with a view to introducing tobacco culture into the country. It is generally believed that soil and climate will prove favorable.

Airmen Reach Churchill

Vance and Blaisdale Marooned In North Since Last October

Churchill, Man.—J. D. Vance, pilot for the Northern Aerial Mineral Explorations, and his mechanic Blaisdale, who were marooned in the far north many months ago, reached Churchill. They mushed 500 miles from Baker Lake, aerial station, and were accompanied from Chesterfield Inlet by "Bob" Hicks, of the Northern Aerial Exploration Company. The airmen were guided by two Eskimos, and had a dog train of three teams.

Despite the arduous tramp to the Bay Port, the airmen and their companions were in excellent health. With train service suspended to Churchill for the winter, the men still have a "walk" of more than 100 miles to reach Mile 327 where they can board a train for The Pas.

Participating in the aerial search for Col. C. D. H. MacAlpine, president of the Dominion Explorations, Limited, and his seven companions who were lost in Canada's sub-Arctic regions for nearly two months, Vance and his companion were forced out of the hunt last October. A mishap to their plane after the MacAlpine rescuers headed northward, left them stranded at the isolated aerial post of Baker Lake.

Waiting, forable weather, and wall conditions, the men suffered no hardship at the post, where there was a plentiful supply of provisions, and also a Hudson Bay trading post.

After an unsuccessful start in December, the airmen waited another month and on January 2, accompanied by Indian guides with dog teams, got going again, reaching Chesterfield Inlet 13 days later.

After resting for a short time, they took to the trail that brought them to Churchill recently. In December the men were on the trail for two weeks, but fierce northern blizzards forced them to return to Baker Lake.

Vance, a veteran aviator, is a resident of Toronto, while Blaisdale, a youth of 21, is a Winnipeg boy, an experienced pilot and air engineer.

To Visit Canada

Train Of Fifty British Riflemen To Complete Here Next August

Ottawa, Ont.—A train of fifty English riflemen are expected to visit Canada this August to compete in the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association matches at Connaught ranges. The team will be composed of competitors at the Blaisy meet who can take the trip to Canada at their own expense. At the last D.R.A. meet, a number of cadets from the English public schools, members of the Officers' Training Corps, competed in the matches. A similar representation from the O.T.C. is expected this year. These announcements were made at the annual meeting of the D.C.R.A. which opened here.

Ten Years At College

Minneapolis.—After spending 10 years at the University of Minnesota and earning three degrees, Thomas Rigor of the Philippine Islands, has left for his home to devote the rest of his life in the improvement of his country. The doctorate degree was conferred on Rigor, March 20. He already has earned degrees of bachelor of arts and master of science.

Winter Lures This Lady

Midwinter in the Metagana region with deep snow and sub-zero weather proved too great an attraction for Lady Kitty Wilson, daughter of the Earl of Arlre, to pass up and she took Canadian Pacific train from Montreal to get there. An outdoor sportswoman all her life, she here realized her desire to be situated in the great solitude and the real nature. She fished through holes in the ice and picture shows what kind of sport she had. She mushed for miles through forest and plain behind her dog team and when the day was done she retired to rest in a log cabin made snug with stove against the bitter blast. Her ladyship says that she prefers Canada in winter to summer and certainly her adventures seem to prove it.

India's Agitators Have Further Grievance

British Medical Council Refuses To Recognize University Degrees

New Delhi, India.—India's agitators have been given another opportunity to foster indignation against Britain by the curt refusal of the British Medical Council to recognize medical degrees of Indian universities. British medical authorities have long been dissatisfied with the training methods of certain universities in India.

Many efforts have been made to achieve a degree of training which will win the approval of the council and enable Indian doctors to practice in Great Britain. The latest proposal, accepted and sponsored by the Government of India, provided for the appointment of a medical commissioner to ensure uniform training throughout India. The Legislative Assembly, however, rejected the plan and not long after the assembly's action the medical council refused to recognize Indian degrees.

Fund Impossible To Replace 105 Nurses In Detroit Hospitals

Windsor, Ont.—Possibility that Canadian trained nurses, not citizens of United States, may be retained in service of the city of Detroit, in two hospitals, appeared at a meeting of the Detroit council council. The council was advised by Dr. Carl E. Buck, of the board of health, that it is found impossible to replace 105 nurses who would be discharged under the policy adopted by the council, despite the fact that advertisements had been sent to all parts of United States.

Restrictions Raised On Reindeer Meat

Limited Supply Can Be Imported Without Inspection

Ottawa, Ont.—Reindeer meat may now enter Canada without restriction, under the provision of an order-in-council just passed on the recommendation of the Department of Agriculture. Up to the present time it was required to conform to the inspection requirements of other meat products but owing to the inaccessibility of reindeer herds in the remote sections of Alaska inspection conditions are so difficult as to be impracticable.

Limited supplies of reindeer meat will, under the new regulation, shortly appear in Canada through the cold storage terminals in New Westminster, B.C.

CLOSER CHECK WILL BE KEPT ON IMMIGRATION

Ottawa.—The steps taken by the Dominion Government in inviting the provinces to assume a larger share of responsibility in immigration matters was laid before the House of Commons by Hon. Charles Stewart, acting minister of immigration.

He explained that his deputy was taking up the proposal with the individual provinces. The new plans were dependent on the House ratifying the agreements by which the provinces of the west get back the crown lands and other natural resources.

The statement of Mr. Stewart came during a debate on a resolution offered by T. E. Donnelly (Liberal, Willow Bunch), which it would place the House on record as opposed to any assisted immigration "except in so far as financial assistance is at present being extended to female domestics."

An amendment of D. F. Kellner (U.F.A. Athabasca) would have gone further and made any company or other organization bringing in immigrants deposit $1,000 with the province for each immigrant as a guarantee against becoming a public charge. It proposed also to discontinue assistance to female domestics. The amendment was declared out of order by Mr. Speaker Lemieux.

Replying to an interjection, Mr. Stewart stated that present agreements of the Dominion Government with transportation companies will expire on May 31st. These "transportation company agreements" would be renewed and the companies had been notified to this effect, he said.

"Under the proposed agreement with the provinces," Mr. Stewart declared, "we are asking them to assume the responsibility for saying how many and what kind of immigrants they are desirous of having and can absorb in any given year. We will not pass into Canada people desired to any province unless it is the desire of that province to receive them."

"It is not the intention of this Government to prevent any individual in the British Isles or in northern Europe who is in a position to finance his passage and who has a reasonable sum of money in his possession to maintain himself when he arrives in this country from entering this country unless the provinces should say that they are not desirous of receiving such immigrants. Under such circumstances we would have to defer to that extent an individual entering into that province."

Mr. Stewart continued: "We are not thinking of continuing any assistance except that we have not yet arrived at a definite decision as to whether we should discontinue assistance to juveniles."

"That is the only case in regard to which we have not yet reached a definite decision."

The Dominion Government went on, intended to continue to lend its assistance in the way of paying for the necessary number of officials to control immigration. "We must have officers at every port of entry into Canada," Mr. Stewart explained.

The minister could not conceive of any province "barring the door" to immigration, but believed immigration would continue in accordance with the powers of absorption by the provinces.

Bar Russian Wheat

London, England.—The Italian steamer "Confienza" with a cargo of Russian grain bound for Rotterdam, was docked at Amsterdam because of a Dutch protest against the import of Russian produce, which members of the Netherlands agricultural board said had been seized from Russian farmers by the Soviet government.

WANT IMPOSITION OF A HIGHER DUTY ON EGGS

Ottawa.—Canadian hens produce the finest eggs in the world, but heavy seasonal imports of eggs from the United States are disturbing the serenity of their owners. The question of restricting imports increases in the tariff on eggs was argued before the Advisory Board on Tariffs and Taxation, when the Application of the Canadian Poultry Pool, Limited, was heard.

The applicants asked for a duty of 9 cents a dozen on all foreign shell eggs entering Canada which do not comply with the specifications of Canadian extras. The Canadian extras, it was pointed out, were of such a high standard that side competition from abroad was feared. At the same time it was urged that the present fixed value on frozen eggs entering Canada should be at least maintained. The latter enter at an ad valorem duty while duty on shell eggs is 3 cents a dozen.

The question resolved itself into whether the remedy proposed would have the desired effect. In a letter from the Canadian Council of Agriculture it was argued that the imposition of a higher duty would only have the effect of stimulating production in Canada with a lowering of the present high standard of Canadian eggs. The result would be the market would be glutted, prices would fall off owing to consumers ceasing to eat as many eggs when they were of poorer quality.

The imports complained of occurred chiefly at the present season of the year when large quantities of eggs from Chicago were sent to Toronto and Montreal and offered for sale at prices as low as 27 cents a dozen for extras, when the cost of production was 40 cents a dozen. This was attributed, in part, to a desire on the part of someone to force down prices just as Canadian hens were beginning to lay heavily in the spring and eggs were being put in storage.

Owing to climatic conditions in Canada there was always a very heavy production during the summer and eggs had to be stored at considerable expense for winter use. The only way any account during the winter months was in British Columbia and it was claimed, eggs from that province were being forced to compete with eggs during on the markets of eastern Canada from Chicago. Another hearing is likely to be held.

Passing Of Great Statesman

Tribute Is Paid To The Memory Of Lord Balfour

Woking, Surrey, England.—In a room of his brother's house, looking out to the peaceful English countryside he lay so much, Lord Balfour passed peacefully away.

He was a former prime minister of Great Britain and one of the last of the great Victorian statesmen. His last years were characteristic of his whole life.

Sending for his man-servant, James Colman, who had been in his service 30 years, Lord Balfour took him by the hand and said:

"Good-bye, James. Thank you very much for all you have done for me."

Lord Balfour was 82 years old. He was created an earl and Viscount Traquair after the Washington conference in 1921, and will be succeeded by his brother Gerald, in whose house he died.

The funeral was held at Lord Balfour's Scottish home at Whittingham.

Premier MacDonald, informed almost at once of the Earl's death, declared: "It is the end of a long, useful life, and the whole nation will unite in expressing its regret and in paying its tribute."

The Earl was 81 years old last July, and he played tennis right up to that birthday. A most notable characteristic was an almost unlimited capacity for conversation. He frequently astonished friends with recollections of the most trivial incidents in his long career.

Want Smarter Uniforms

London, England.—Smarter uniforms for the army were urged by a member of the House of Commons when a questioner brought last year's decline in recruiting to the attention of the House. Another parliamentarian advanced the idea that the whole army should be put into khaki as a means of attracting the favorable eye of youth.

It will be good news to southern Albertans that the Dominion government has decided to deal generously with Waterton National Park, and that much needed improvements to the south's playground will be undertaken this year. Waterton is our pride and joy, and it is becoming so widely known to tourists that we must fix it up so it will present a good front. The expenditure will be repaid to Canada many times over in the money left by tourists who will delight in this beauty spot.—Lethbridge Herald.
